CROSSROADS

CONGRATULATIONS

My name is Adam Shoulders, and I'm excited to congratulate you on being selected to attend the 2nd Annual Junior CrossRoads Elite Invitational, taking place March 6–8 in Kansas City, Kansas, at Homefield KCK's state-of-the-art 10-court showcase facility.

Over the past 13 years, my invite-only high school camp has served as a launching pad for some of the game's brightest young stars. This spring's Junior CREI provides a valuable opportunity for me—and several of the sport's most respected scouts—to evaluate you for future opportunities, including our high school camp this fall. The event will feature top talent from across the country in the classes of 2030, 2031, and 2032.

The Jr. CREI offers a one-of-a-kind stage to measure your game against the nation's best in a unique format that emphasizes competition. It's your chance to join a growing list of elite prospects who took their first major step at CrossRoads Elite.

To accept your invitation, please register at www.crossroadseliteinvitational.com. The camp fee is $399, and the registration/payment deadline is February 28th.

If you have any questions, feel free to call me at 615-708-9762.

Wishing you a great camp experience and continued success on your basketball journey!

See you soon,

Adam Shoulders
Camp Founder and Recruiting Director

CAMP FORMAT

OVER THE COURSE OF THE 3 DAYS CAMPERS WILL RECEIVE A BALANCE OF TEACHING AND INTENSE 5-ON-5 COMPETITION. EACH PLAYER IS GUARANTEED 3 GAMES. BALL MOVEMENT, PLAYER MOVEMENT AND PLAYING HARD ARE CAMP NON NEGOTIABLES. THE CREI PROVIDES EXPOSURE BUT NOT AT THE EXPENSE OF FAILING TO HOLD PLAYERS ACCOUNTABLE. THE STRUCTURE OF THE 5-ON-5 COMPETITION LEADS TO MORE ACCURATE EVALS FOR THE SCOUTS IN ATTENDANCE.

The camp coaching staff is led by USA basketball's Don Showalter.

I would highly recommend Adam Shoulder's CrossRoads Elite camp for any young player who wants to get better and also wants to get their name out there on a national level. I have been involved with CrossRoads Elite camps since the start and have nothing but great things to say about the organization and the level of competition that Adam has at his camps.

ANDOVER, Kans. — Just outside of Wichita, the 2021 edition of the Crossroads Elite Invitational took place over the weekend. One of the nation's premier camps for freshmen, sophomores and juniors — and even some who are younger — the camp is always loaded. For the last two days, 2023's Matas Buzelis

With his crossroads elite camp, Adam Shoulders has developed one of the top underclassmen showcases for talented underclassmen in the nation. The camp provides young players the chance to test themselves against some of the best in the country. For me it is a must attend because I can get a headstart on identifying the talents I will be covering throughout their high school careers.

NASHVILLE -- The Crossroads Elite Invitational is a showcase event for the best current freshmen and rising 9th graders in the country. Adam Shoulders and Kurt Stubbs do a great job of accruing talent from across the United States in order to make this a top-flight event. Here are a few of the top players I saw during the two-day schedule.

As far as underclassmen are concerned, there may not be a more independent event than Adam Shoulders' Crossroads Elite Invitational. Proving as the springboard for Michael Porter Jr., Jabari Bird, Kris Wilkes, and Kevin Knox, CrossRoads Elite helped put these McDonald's All-Americans (Bird will be there in '18) on the map before they ever had D-1 offers. Shoulders' level of scouting for under the radar guys is relentless. To say the least. Temporarily based
